“Global Initiative for Humanistic Education”

Brief Introduction

Established in 1971, Soka University has developed advanced academic curricula and support systems based on the mandate that the needs of the students are paramount. Located in Hachioji, a suburb of Tokyo, our verdant campus provides an optimal learning environment and offers one of the most comprehensive and fastest-growing foreign exchange programs in Japan. International students not only have access to a range of scholarships and housing facilities, but can also be provided in Japanese study programs and other unique programs taught in English. Our hope is that you will discover your potential at Soka University, so you can make a real difference in the world.
