

Akita University

[Akita University Bangkok Office]

Level 8, Zuellig House, 1 Silom Road, Bangrak, Bangkok 10500, Thailand

[Akita University - Chulalongkorn University Joint Research Laboratory]

Wangmai, Patumwan, Phayathai Road, Chulalongkorn University,
Bangkok 10330, Thailand

University website : <http://www.akita-u.ac.jp/>

Introduction

Akita University is a comprehensive national university consisting of both undergraduate and graduate programs established in 1949.

Student Figures(as of May 1 , 2018)

Students: 5,076(Undergraduate 4,384, Graduate 692)

International Students:202(Undergraduate 133, Graduate 69)

Faculties

International Resource Sciences
Education and Human Studies
Engineering Science
Medicine

Graduate Schools

International Resource Sciences
Education
Engineering Science
Medicine

Major activities

Bangkok Office

Akita University Bangkok Office opened on October 1, 2014 in Hokuto Bank Bangkok office, Thailand. It Serves as an administrative office connecting Akita University and partner universities mainly in Southeast Asia.

Chulalongkorn University Joint Research Laboratory

Akita University Chulalongkorn University Joint Research Laboratory opened on April 25, 2013. It serves as a base for research and field work for both universities. In addition, the facility will be used for remote classes using a video conference system, interviews with prospective students, and pre-arrival orientation for Thai students and researchers on the way to Akita.

