Akita University

Introduction

Akita University is a comprehensive national university consisting of both undergraduate and graduate programs established in 1949.

Student Figures (as of May 1, 2019)
Students: 5,115 (Undergraduate 4,400, Graduate 715)
International Students: 220 (Undergraduate 151, Graduate 69)

Faculties
International Resource Sciences
Education and Human Studies
Engineering Science
Medicine

Graduate Schools
International Resource Sciences
Education
Engineering Science
Medicine

Major activities

Bangkok Office
Akita University Bangkok Office opened on October 1, 2014 in Hokuto Bank Bangkok office, Thailand. It serves as an administrative office connecting Akita University and partner universities mainly in Southeast Asia.

Chulalongkorn University Joint Research Laboratory
Akita University Chulalongkorn University Joint Research Laboratory opened on April 25, 2013. It serves as a base for research and field work for both universities. In addition, the facility will be used for remote classes using a video conference system, interviews with prospective students, and pre-arrival orientation for Thai students and researchers on the way to Akita.