

Takushoku University

[International Affairs Division]

3-4-14 Kohinata, Bunkyo-ku, Tokyo

112-8585 JAPAN

<https://lang.takushoku-u.ac.jp/en/>

Email: web_int@ofc.takushoku-u.ac.jp

Phone: +81-3-3947-7212

Introduction

Bunkyo Campus, Tokyo

Hachioji International Campus, Tokyo

Takushoku University is an international university with a rich history and tradition that was established in 1900 with a pledge to cultivate global individuals capable of contributing to Asia and the world. Many of our 150,000 graduates are active overseas. Of those seeking to study abroad, 80 percent or more are able to fulfill that dream, and the university offers courses in 14 foreign languages. There are more than 1,100 foreign students attending the university.

Undergraduate Faculties

- Faculty of Commerce
- Faculty of Political Science and Economics
- Faculty of Foreign Languages
- Faculty of Engineering
- Faculty of International Studies

Graduate Schools

- Graduate School of Economics
- Graduate School of Commerce
- Graduate School of Engineering
- Graduate School of Language Education
- Graduate School of International Cooperation Studies
- Graduate School of Local Government

Intensive Japanese Language Program for Overseas Students

The University's Intensive Japanese Language Program, established in 1972, offers opportunities to gain the Japanese language proficiency required to enroll the undergraduate or graduate courses of Japanese universities.

Location

Bunkyo Campus : 3-4-14 Kohinata, Bunkyo-ku, Tokyo 112-8585 Japan

Hachioji International Campus : 815-1 Tatemachi, Hachioji, Tokyo 193-0985 Japan