

Oita University

Introduction

Oita University is the only national university corporation located in Oita Prefecture. As a “Center of community” in Oita, Oita University plays an active role in education, research and medical sciences. The university consists of 5 faculties, 5 graduate schools and a university hospital, with 155 international students from 19 countries as of May 1, 2019. The university also has concluded academic exchange agreements with 93 institutes/hospitals in over 26 countries and regions.

Total Area: 6,340km²
Number of Municipalities: 18
Population: 1,143,976

Average Temp.: 17°C
Maximum: 37.0 °C
Minimum: -2.4°C

On 24th August 2015, Oita University established Bangkok Office at Siriraj Hospital, Thai National Mahidol University as our first foreign branch.

Major Activities

joint research projects, holding seminars and exchanging of human resource Oita University Bangkok Office will contribute to deepening the medical technology partnership between Oita University and Thailand, and also promote overseas business development through s in ASEAN.

Fostering medical professionals mainly in the fields of artificial dialysis and endoscope systems which are recognized as fields where Japan excels.

Establishing a firm position for Oita University in the fields of medicine and education in Thailand.

Developing public relations activities in order to constantly recruit international students.

- We established a NPO, Mekong Endo-Surgery Development Association (MESDA) to increase number of surgeons who can perform safe minimal invasive surgery.
- We support student, research and medical exchange programs between Thailand and Oita University.
- We support students who plan to study at Oita University.

Contact Address

9th Floor, SiMR Building, Faculty of Medicine Siriraj Hospital 2 Wanglang Road
Bangkoknoi, Bangkok 10700, Thailand
tomohisa@oita-u.ac.jp, tankoury@oita-u.ac.jp
Phone: +66-083-227-4046